One-day Professional Development Programme (PDP) for New Faculty:

Integrating with the Institutional Culture

17.11.2021

Organized by the IQAC

Overview:

New Faculty Orientation is a Professional Development Programme initiated by the IQAC, Maris Stella College, annually, for faculty with five or less years of teaching experience with the objective of familiarizing them with institutional practices and instructional strategies of teaching and learning. The one-day PDP for new faculty 'Integrating with the Institutional Culture' is designed to provide inputs on the vision & mission and the policies of the institution, various aspects of teaching, professional ethics, role and responsibilities of faculty, code of conduct and rules and regulations to help beginning faculty integrate with the institutional culture.

Objectives:

- To provide inputs to new faculty on teacher-student relationship, classroom management and instructional methods
- To help new faculty understand institutional practices and develop a sense of belongingness
- To integrate new faculty with the institutional culture

Outcomes:

The new faculty will be able to

- Acquire classroom management skills and understand teaching-learning processes at Maris Stella
- Acquaint themselves with the institutional policies and practices and cultivate a sense of belongingness
