

MARIS STELLA COLLEGE (AUTONOMOUS)
Department of Electronics
2015-2016

Summer Internship

Three students, T.Snehitha, K.Ramya and Yasmeen Sultana from II B.Sc (MECs) completed an internship programme of six weeks duration from April 15th, 2015 to May 31st, 2015 at Efftronics Systems Pvt. Ltd, Vijayawada.

e-wave 2016: Inter-Collegiate Competition

Organized e-wave 2016 an Inter-Collegiate competition on 23 -01-2016. Competitions were held in paper presentations with topics Smart Card Technology, Wearable Electronics and The Role of Electronics Industry in Digital India Programme and poster presentations with topics Helio Displays and Paper Battery. Students from our college and students from neighbouring colleges took part in this event. The following students won the prizes.

Paper presentations:

First prize- R.Divya Sai (Andhra Loyola College)

Second prize- B.Samanvitha Chowdary (Maris Stella College)

Poster presentations:

First prize- M.S.R.S.Praneeth (K.B.N College)

Second prize- P.Tejitha (SDMS Kalasala)

Talk on career opportunities

Organized a talk on “Career Guidance and Opportunities” for the final year B.Sc (MECs) students on 22. 2. 2016. The resource person Mr.N.Mallikarjun, R&D Project Manager, Efftronics Systems Pvt. Ltd, Vijayawada spoke about the new technologies used in the market and the various opportunities for students in the field of electronics and in higher education.

National science day celebrations

The Inspire and Bio clubs of the college organized a discussion on “Contribution to Society”, Physical Sciences vs. Life Sciences on 23.2.2016 on the eve of National Science Day. Students from different science departments participated in this discussion highlighting the major contributions of their respective subjects to the society. The best two speakers from physical science and life science were awarded prizes for the same. B.Samanvitha Chowdary of I. B. Sc (MECs) was awarded the best speaker in physical science.

